Table

This is just a glimpse, a brief look at WCU from September 1967 to May 1968. Many things happened during this time, many questions were asked, many fads rose and fell. There was the War and the fervor of upcoming elections, mini skirts, the hippies, LSD, and even an ABC store seven miles away. On campus it was a special year of change. We became a university, our academic structure was reorganized, new buildings were completed at a fast rate, and we changed presidents. There was the talk about leaving the Carolinas Conference, and the ever present dissent of the students who wanted freedom—freedom from class attendance restrictions, dorm restrictions, driving restrictions.

But look closely. This was a very important year, a year which was perhaps our first or second or last year in college, a time when we made decisions to get a job or get married or go to graduate school or join the army or just stay on at Western for another year. For most it was a happy year. Turn through these pages slowly, for soon you will no longer be at Western. These pages are the history of 1967-'68.

A Special Farewell . . .

to Paul A. Reid

Dr. Reid Completes 18th Year as President in June

Paul A. Reid, planning a business career, was destined to be an educator. It was almost by accident that he entered the field of education when he agreed to "fill in" temporarily as principal at a little two-teacher school in Surry County.

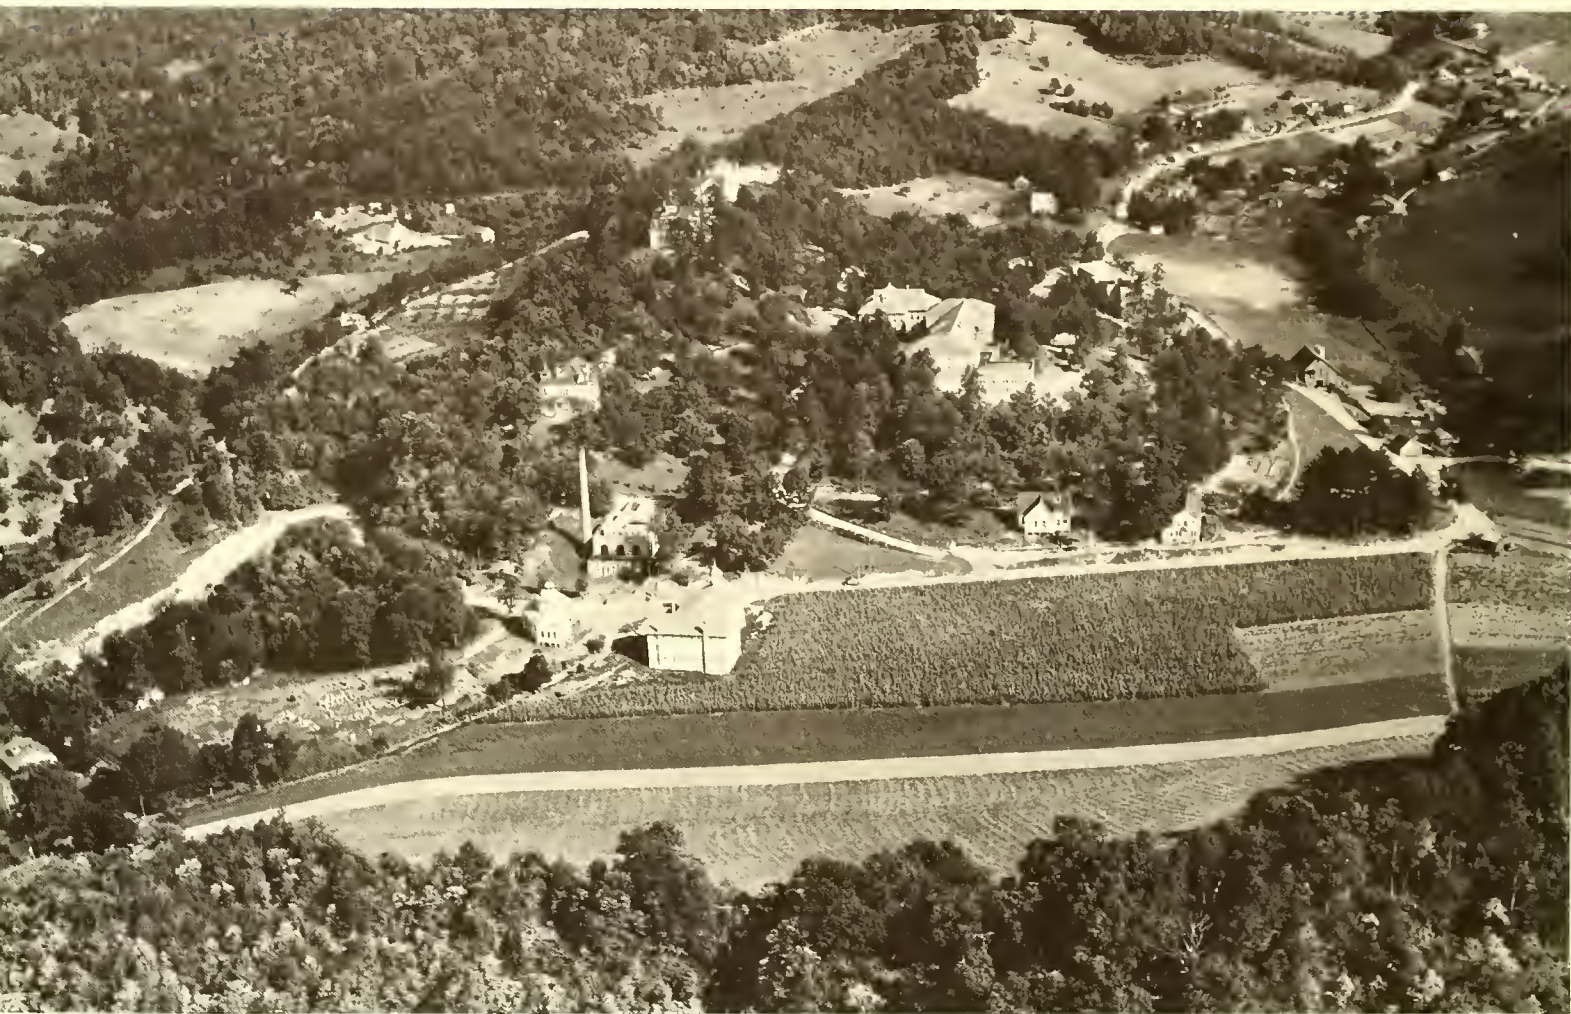

As he completes his presidency at Cullowhee, having brought Western Carolina to the status of a university, there lies behind him a brilliant record.

Teacher, principal, superintendent in North Carolina's public schools. Controller of the State Board of Education. President of Western Carolina Teachers College. President of Western Carolina College. Assistant director of the first North Carolina Board of Higher Education. President of Western Carolina University.

There were only a few structures dotted about the hillside when Paul Reid came to tiny WCTC in 1949. There were fewer than 600 students. Today, WCU's 4,000 students find construction constantly in their way, as building after building goes up. The institution has reached new heights of academic excellence despite the difficulties of building topflight programs during times of rapid growth. Dr. Reid has never yielded the excellence of the academic program to the expediencies of construction.

Dr. Reid inherited a teacher's college. He leaves us a university. He not only brought us to, but carried us across the threshold of a great and good institution. He leaves us to take up more leisurely academic pursuits of study, travel and writing. We wish him Godspeed in all things.

The Making

Aerial view of Cullowhee Normal School around 1928. Enrollment at this time was about 350.

Fifty-five seniors graduated at the time of this picture in 1932. In the right corner are Joyner and Moore dorms.

of a University

1945 aerial view shows the additions of Hoey and McKee. Post-war enrollment increased to around 550.

And Finally,

Western Carolina University

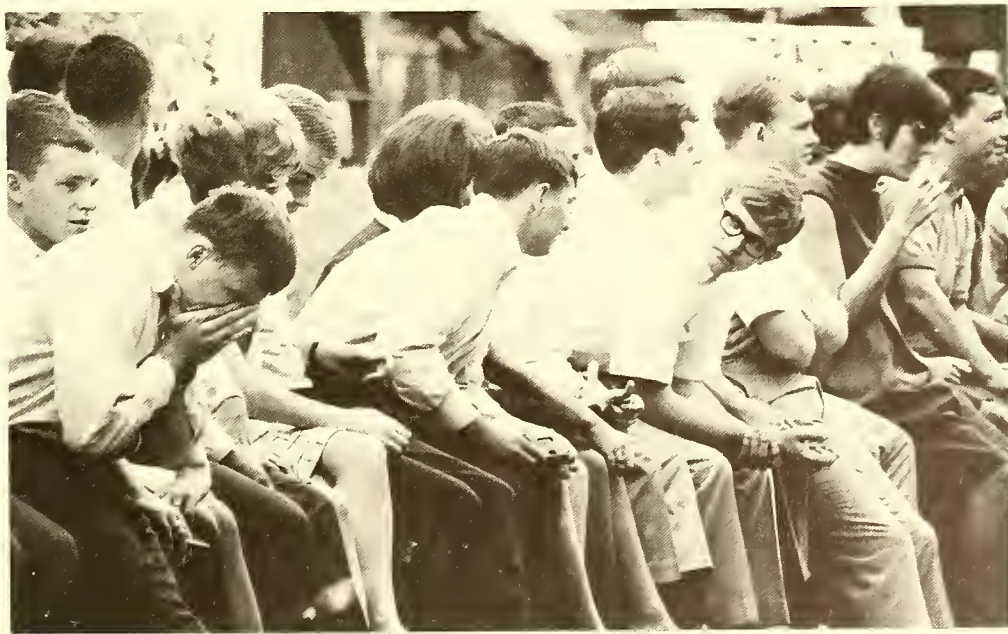

The story of Western Carolina lies in its People . . .

Students, faculty, administrators, all four and a half thousand are necessary to make the story complete. And what is the story of WCU? It is different for each person, unique for each individual. For some, academic success, for others, . . .

Being part of the crowd

... Or being alone in the crowd

Taking part in all activities . . .

... Or finding quietness
on a warm afternoon.

CHARLES SUTTON
Student Body Vice-President

The major role of the President and Vice-President of the student body is to act as coordinator for the various parts of the student government and to see that these branches of government keep progressing.

Roger Euliss, along with his usual jobs as President, played an important role in the new phone system that was installed this year. His other activities include an extensive research and report for the Athletic Committee concerning the controversial question of our remaining in the Carolina Conference, and working with the Alumni Association.

Charles Sutton's major accomplishments have been in the work of the Student Senate — revamping the senate committees, the constitution and obtaining more representation on the faculty committees. Charles also worked with the pre-session conference recommendations and directed a questionnaire for the Student Handbook.

The Student Senate has had a very productive year and has fulfilled many requests for improvements made in the Pre-Session Conference. Working with the administration, the Senate has been able to take part in more faculty committees, improve campus facilities and broaden our athletic program.

This year our new constitution provides for two-year terms for Senators, a Senate Chaplain and a stronger cooperation between the Senate and the Men's and Women's House Governments.

The formation of a Day Student Council this year has increased the effectiveness of the Day Student Government. This Council, which works closely with the Student Senate, represents all students not living in the dorms.

This year the Council has recommended and received a day student meal ticket and has also made available an off campus housing list. Improvements have also been made in the ever present and fast growing problem of parking facilities for commuting students.

University Center Board

The tremendous success of the computer dance was several firsts for WCU — it was not only the first of its kind on this campus, but also the first function held in the A. K. Hinds Student Center. This dance was only one of the many activities that the UCB has held since the facilities of the new building have been opened. The UCB also is closely coordinated with the Programs Committee in bringing different types of entertainment to the campus.

OFFICERS: Judy Love, Vice-President; Pat Cantrell, President; Jane Cabe, Secretary.

Student Life

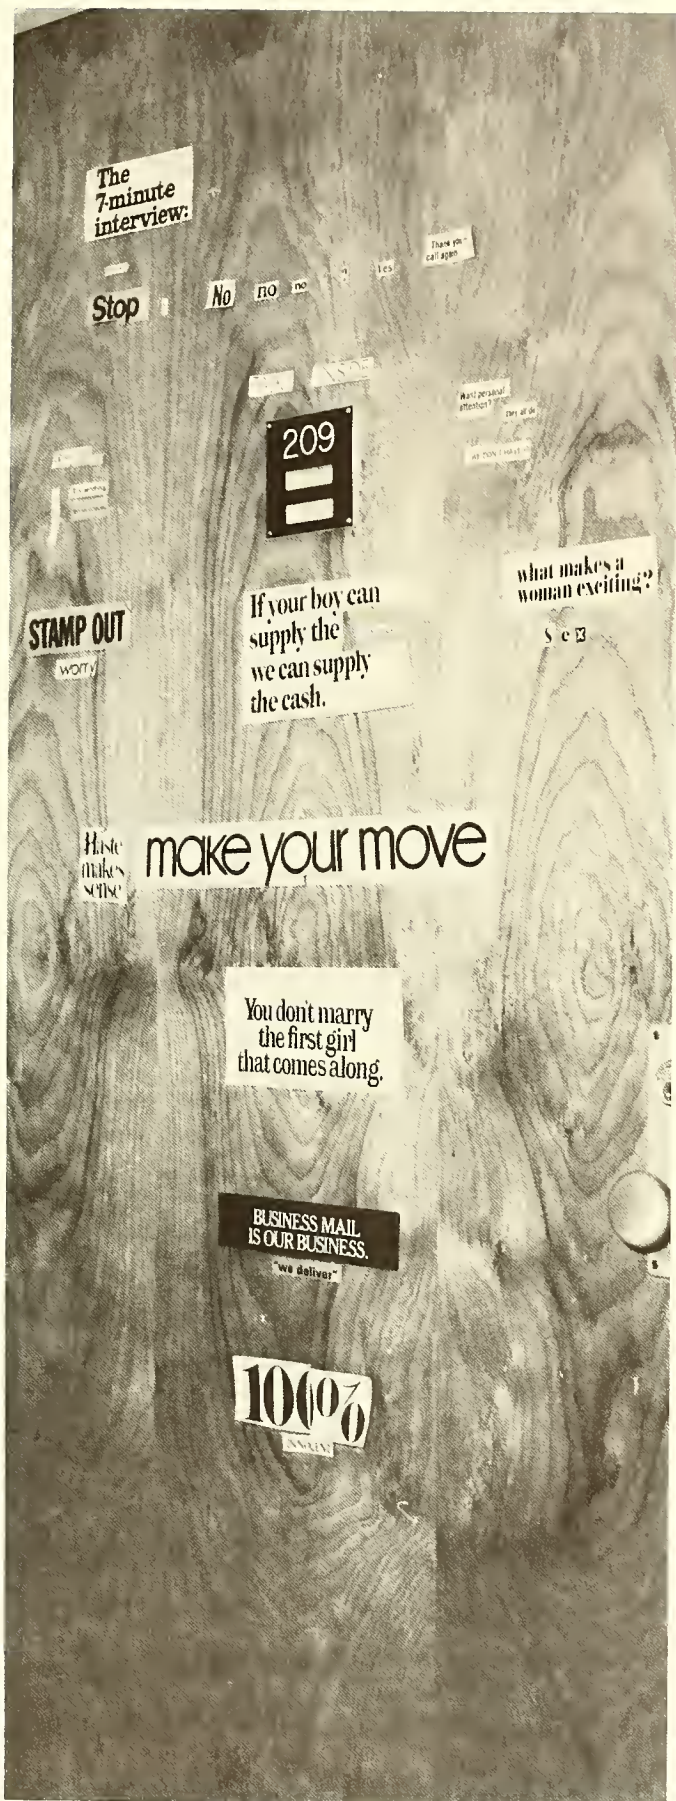

Over 2800 students live in the dorms

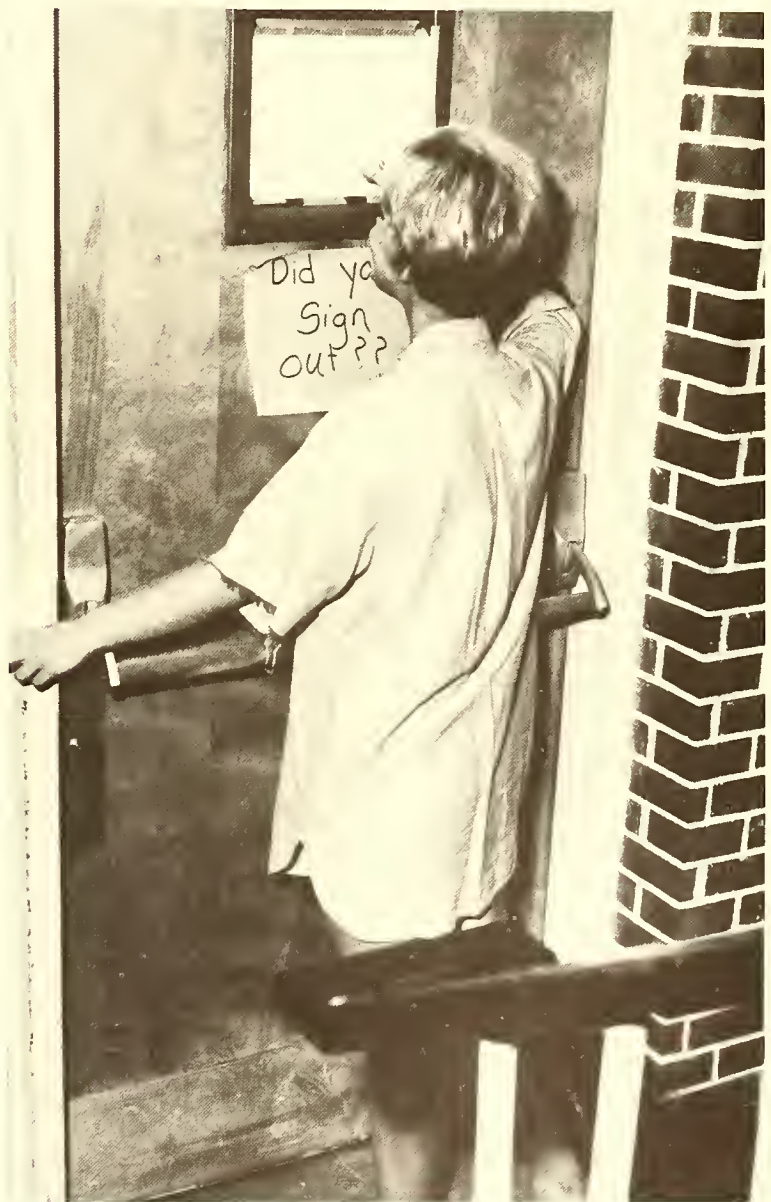

The boys put up with long walks up the hill, an abundance of noise, and crowded rooms—
but its home for nine months a year.

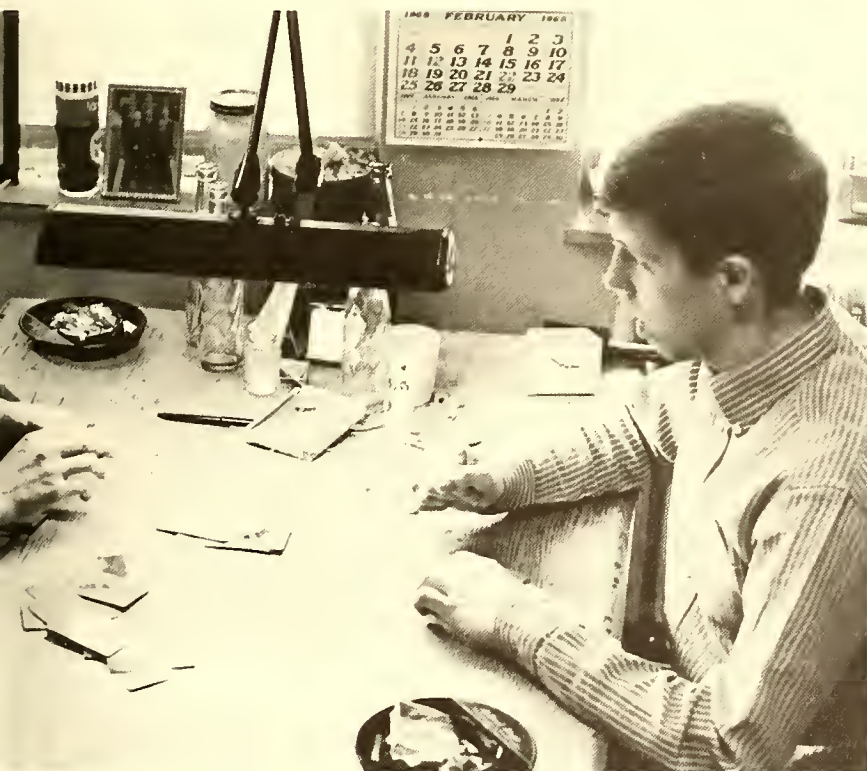

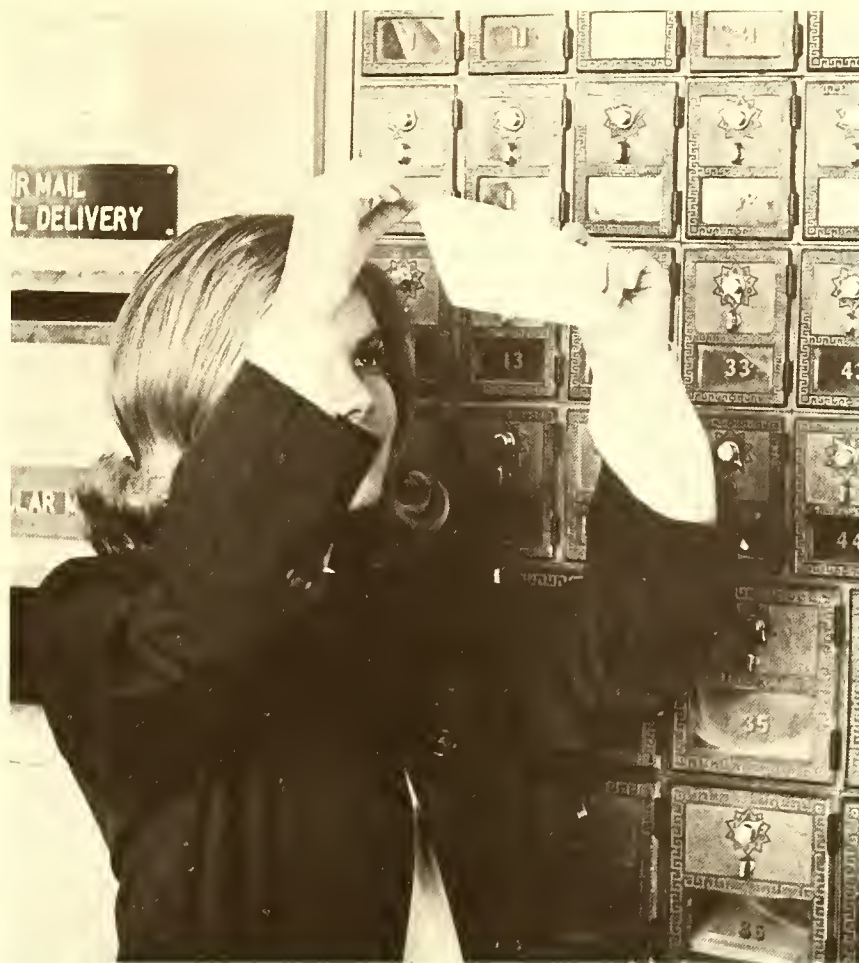

Rules, rules and more rules.
But the girls soon learn to tolerate them and dorm life becomes a continuous social hour.

For the commuting students it is doubtful which is worse—driving around campus or finding a place to park.

VOICE OF THE STUDENTS

To keep up with the demanding needs of this school, the Western Carolinian has made tremendous advances in the past two years. Now in its 33rd year, the newspaper is published on Tuesday and Thursday of each week.

As a "campus gripe sheet", it no longer exists. Informative material on campus, local and national events makes this news media valuable not only to the campus but to the community as well. The articles explore in depth the rationale of all major campus changes as well as many minor ones.

The addition of three type-justifying machines and a headliner permits the Carolinian staff to complete the entire production of the paper, except for the actual printing. This $10,000's worth of equipment has been added since Fall 1966.

The first "University" yearbook, this Catamount has several new features. Photo essays on dorm life and day student life plus the supplement are just a few.

Of the 4,000 on-campus students during Fall Quarter, only 2,650 came to have their picture made for the class section. This is an improvement from past years, but it is still not as many as was hoped. Almost 75 percent of the faculty are pictured in their section, with a total of 150 of the 203 full-time faculty members.

A total of $25,210 was appropriated for the Catamount this past Fall, from which 3,200 books were printed. Each student pays $3 each quarter as part of the student activities fee to pay for his book.

Among Students in American Colleges and Universities

Students participated for the first time this fall in the selection of Who's Who candidates. The academic department's and student's nominations listed over 75 qualified students, from which these 32 were chosen.

Although academic success plays an important role, the major determinants are the student's participation in campus activities.

This was another "almost" year for the Catamounts. Our 4 - 5 - 1 season record does not indicate the Cat's ability or determination. The season was highlighted by outstanding performances by several Cat players, and, of course, the victory over arch rival Appalachian.

For the first time in several years the Cats had a respected running attack along with the passing game. Junior quarterback Don Dalton settled down after the first few games and finished the season with nine touchdowns.

Western's leading rusher and scorer, David Lomax, shows his form with a TD against Newberry.

Carson-Newman

The first game of the season found two great defensive teams battling it out for a low scoring victory of 7 to 3 in favor of the fighting Cats. Carson-Newman found themselves facing "Western Trouble" when Don Powers grabbed a dangling Eagle pass on the C-N two yard line and scrambled in for the lone Catamount score. Phillip Brooks converted on the extra point, and WCU led 7-0 as the final quarter began.

The Cat defense which played a tremendous game held the Eagle offense to a total of 30 yards rushing and rammed so fiercely that the C-N passer was dumped behind the line for a total of 65 yards in losses. Three interceptions were snagged from the flying Eagles, two by Jim Sampson. Larry Whiteside, who lead the Cat attack, ripped Carson-Newman's defense for 72 yards in 18 carries.

Appalachian

The Cats won another battle in their 30 year-old feud with the Mountaineers from Boone. A methodical ground attack and an invaluable defensive line aided Western in its 21-0 shut out.

Western, with 405 yards total offense, amassed 323 yards on the ground with Lomax and Whitesides ripping off big gains. ASU, unable to penetrate the Cat's stone wall, took to the air for 244 yards but the goal-line stands of the mighty Cats held firm.

John Tinker, who started late in season because of injuries, walks off the field after snagging a TD pass against Mars Hill.

John Shaw, number 82, prepares to down a Lenoir-Rhyne Bear.

Homecoming Spoiled as Western Lost to Catawba

Guilford

The first loss came by a smashing defeat at the hands of Guilford. Quaker quarterback Bill Burchette passed for 210 yards and three touchdowns as he led the Quakers to a 26-7 victory.

It was just not Western's day as their single scoring drive came in the second quarter. The Cats went 58 yards in 12 plays, with Dalton passing to Chuck Scott for the 6 points.

Catawba

Well, it was Homecoming, and what can you say? Western's spirits were high, but Catawba's were a notch higher. It was a scoreless night until the final period. Western dominated the first half, allowing the Indians to creep across mid-field just once. The Cats rolled deep into Indian territory several times but were unable to click for a TD. Phillip Brooks kicked a 15 yard field goal, which many thought would be enough. However, Catawba's Hill passed for a six pointer on a fake field goal for a score.

Western drove quickly to the Indians 36 as confidence swelled again, only to be deflated by a 60 yard TD interception return by Catawba. The final buzzer soon rang, and the fans left to party and soon forgot the 12-3 defeat.

Dave Brown and 'Cat Tiny watch as Catawba's interception spoils Western's hopes for a Homecoming victory.

Emory and Henry

The Wasps of Emory and Henry stung the Cats badly with a 28-14 victory. The Wasp's first score came after a WCU fumble, when E & H's Wade threw to Bales for six points.

Early in the second half the Catamounts cranked up their offense and moved 86 yards in 12 plays with Dalton scoring from the three. This glory was short lived as the sting of the Wasps was felt twice more. The final Cat tally came on a 12 yard pass from Dalton to Scott.

The Cats lost not only the game but also powerhouse Larry Whitesides, who was knocked out of action for the rest of the season.

Lenoir-Rhyne

The single-wing Bears flew non-stop over Cullowhee dealing the Cats a 39-6 defeat. It looked close in the first half as the Cats faced the top grid iron team in the conference. All-Conference Wayne Bell and end Brian Jack provided action in the second half as each accounted for two markers.

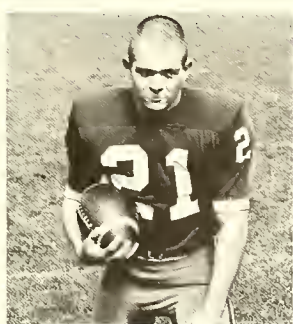

The only Western score was provided when Dalton passed to McMonigle for the TD.

David Turnipseed breaks banner to lead Cats against Newberry.

Elon

Elon drove 72 yards in three plays, and completed a two point conversion in only 52 seconds to transform an inevitable loss into a 20-20 tie to please their Homecoming fans. The Cats played their hearts out against a strong Elon team. Dalton completed 20 of 34 attempts for a career high of 219 yards.

Several injuries to key players forced Robinson to use his freshmen reserves, who played well up to par. Paul Smith collected 93 yards in 10 carries and Steve Spradling, making his debut, caught 3 passes, intercepted one, and made the last desperate attempt for a WCU victory on a kick-off return in the last play of the game.

Newberry

Freezing weather did not slow down the Cats as they rolled over Newberry for the fourth win of the season. A terrific defensive game held the Indians to a total of 75 yards offense. QB Dalton ran for two TD's and passed to Freshmen Steve Spradling and Woody Woodruff for two more.

Newberry was out-classed completely as the 35-0 victory chalked up the second shut-out in as many years over our South Carolina visitors.

Seniors Ken Lewis and Don Powers showed their All-Conference form in leading the Cat defense. Lomax turned another steady performance in scoring one touchdown and a two point PAT.

Fourth Victory of Season Comes at the Expense of Newberry

Sherrill Williams gathers in Dalton's pass against Newberry.

Lenoir-Rhyne halfback finds going a bit slow among a host of Cat defenders.

Freshman quarterback Jimmy Strauss leads the attack against Mars Hill.

Presbyterian

The final game of the season ended in a sour note as the Blue Hose from Presbyterian took advantage of five Western fumbles to defeat the Cats 10-0. Despite Dalton's 14 completed passes for 141 yards and Lomax's 140 yards the Cats failed to score. Western walked off the field leading in every department, except for the points.

Another tremendous performance by junior David Lomax aided his setting the school rushing record held by Ken Sanford since 1963. A total of 714 yards in 10 games is the new record.

Basketball 1968

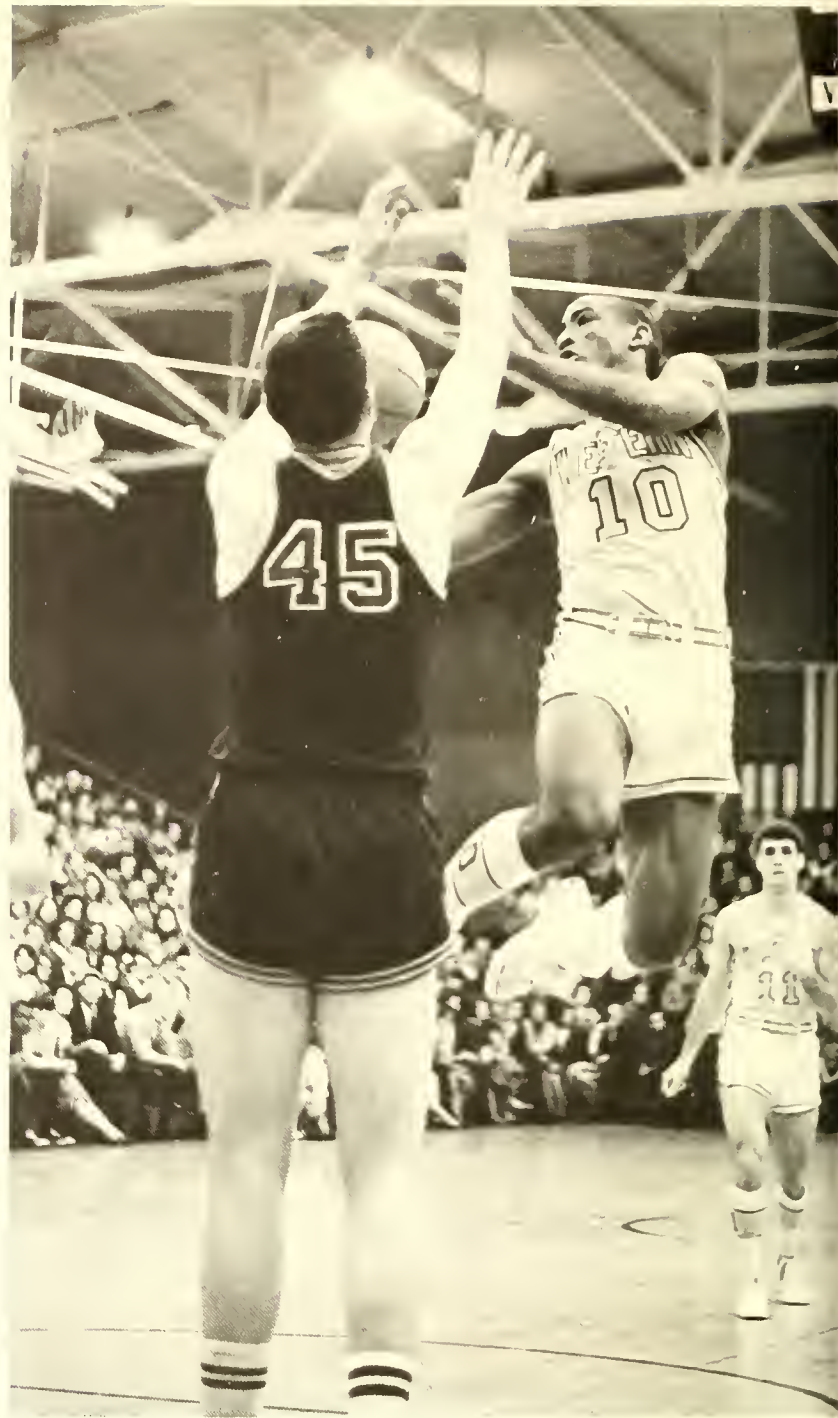

Randy Turbyfill, Henry Logan, Greg Wittman, Gene McConnell, Jim Hammond, Bob Thompson, Mal Brown.

Reserve guard Mal Brown drives for a layup against Elon.

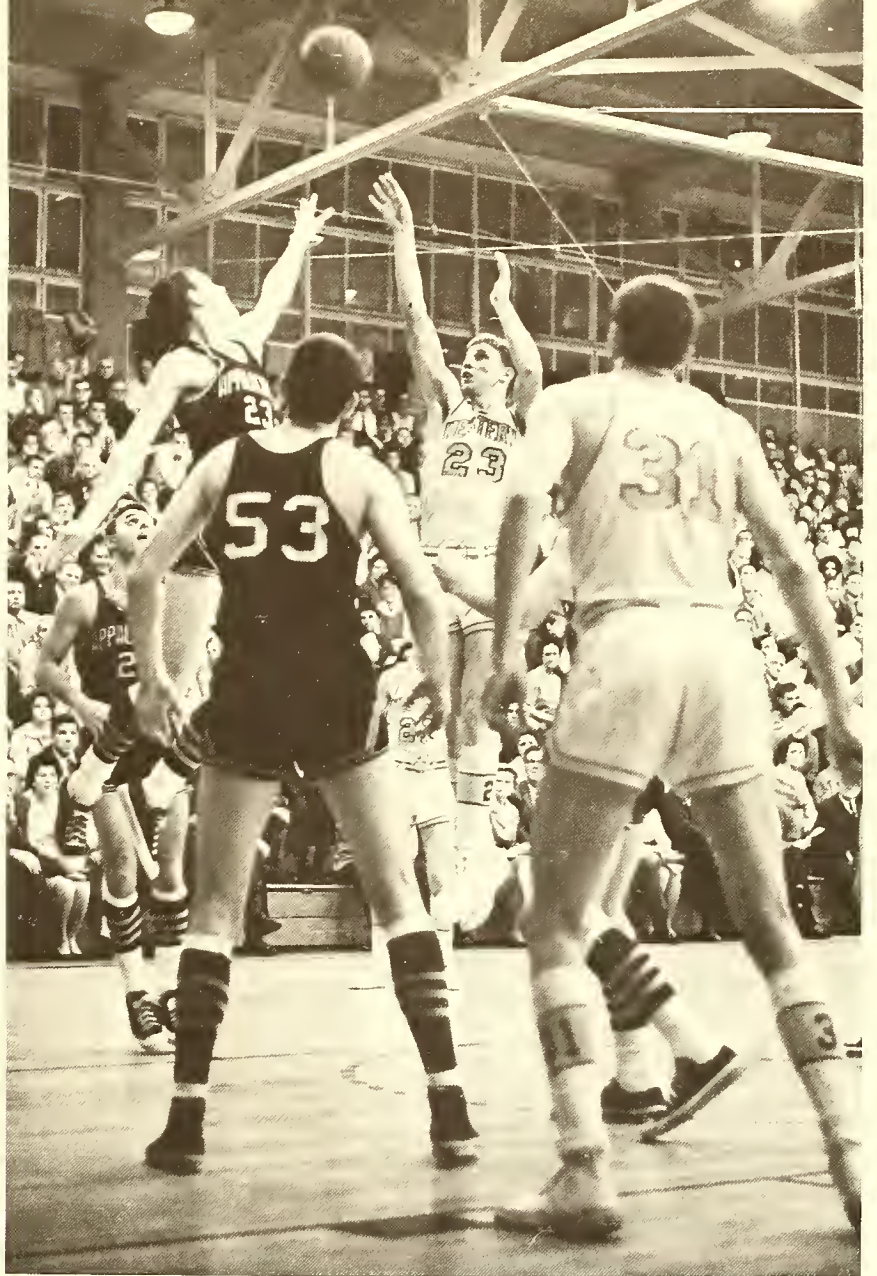

The 1967-'68 season started with a show of power as the Cats won their first few games and swept through the Holiday Tournament undefeated. In mid-season, however, the Cats experienced trouble hitting the basket and lost several key games. Things looked up toward the end of the season as another surge of power made the Cats victors in six of their last seven games when this book went to press. There were still four games left to play and an excellent chance for second place in the Carolinas Conference.

A full account of the games, scores and tournament action is given in the supplement.

Number 30, Paul Litz, hustles for rebound position after McConnell fires a long jumper.

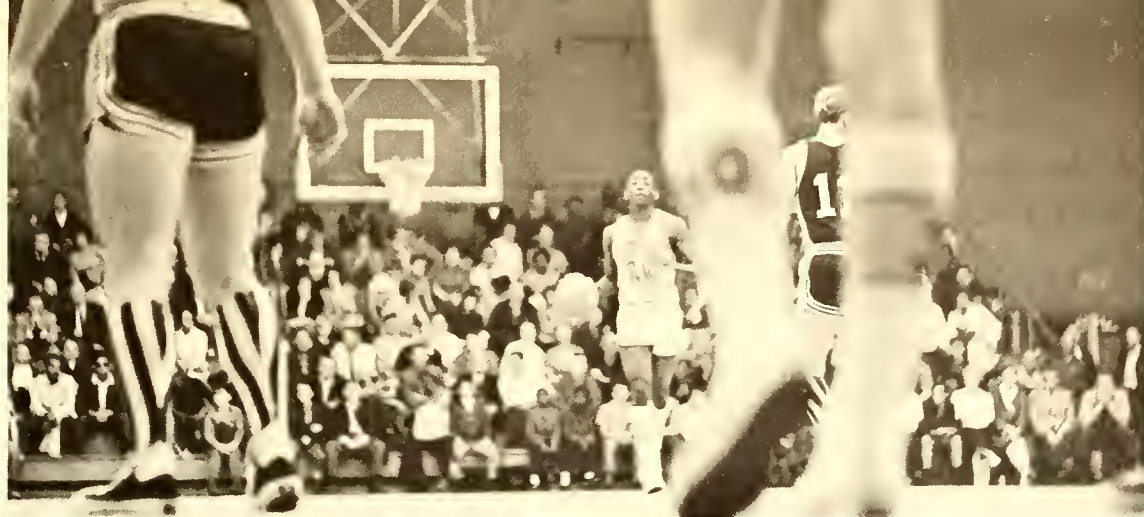

A High Point defender fails to stop Greg Wittman's hook shot in a home court victory over the Panthers.

Gudger's boys came through time after time to please the home crowds with victories over such rivals as Appalachian and High Point. Along with Logan's antics surprising performances by hustling transfer guard Sam Sapp and reserves Paul Litz and Mal Brown gave the Cats the extra scoring punch and depth that was badly needed. Lettermen Greg Wittman, Gene McConnell and Bob Thompson did their usual steady performances to pave the way to Catamount victory.

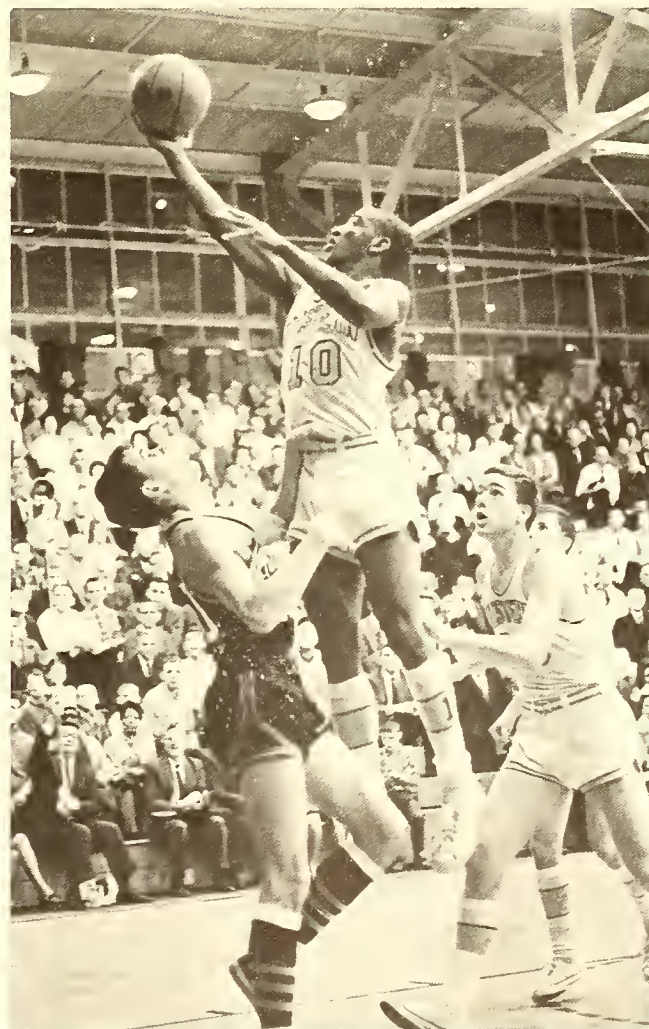

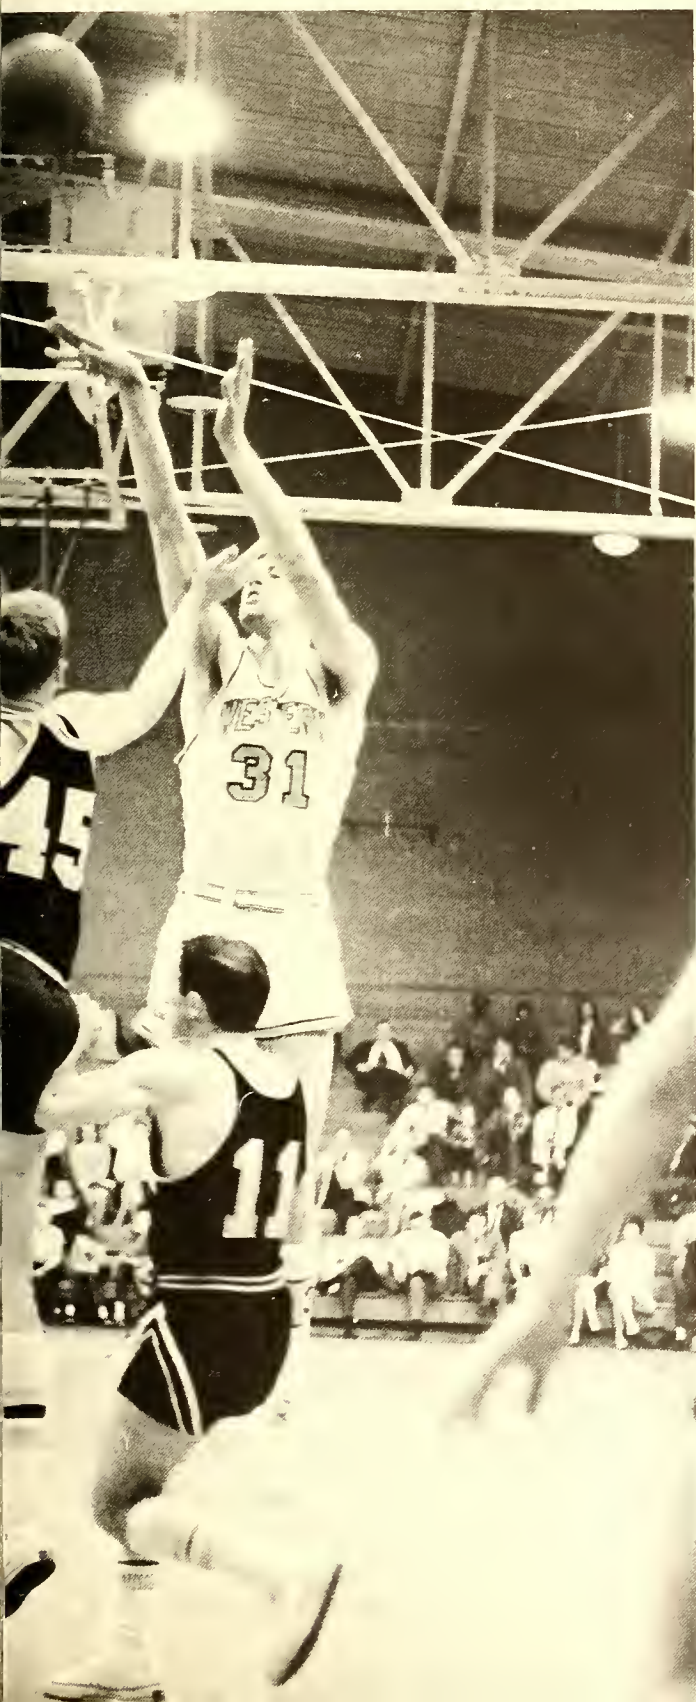

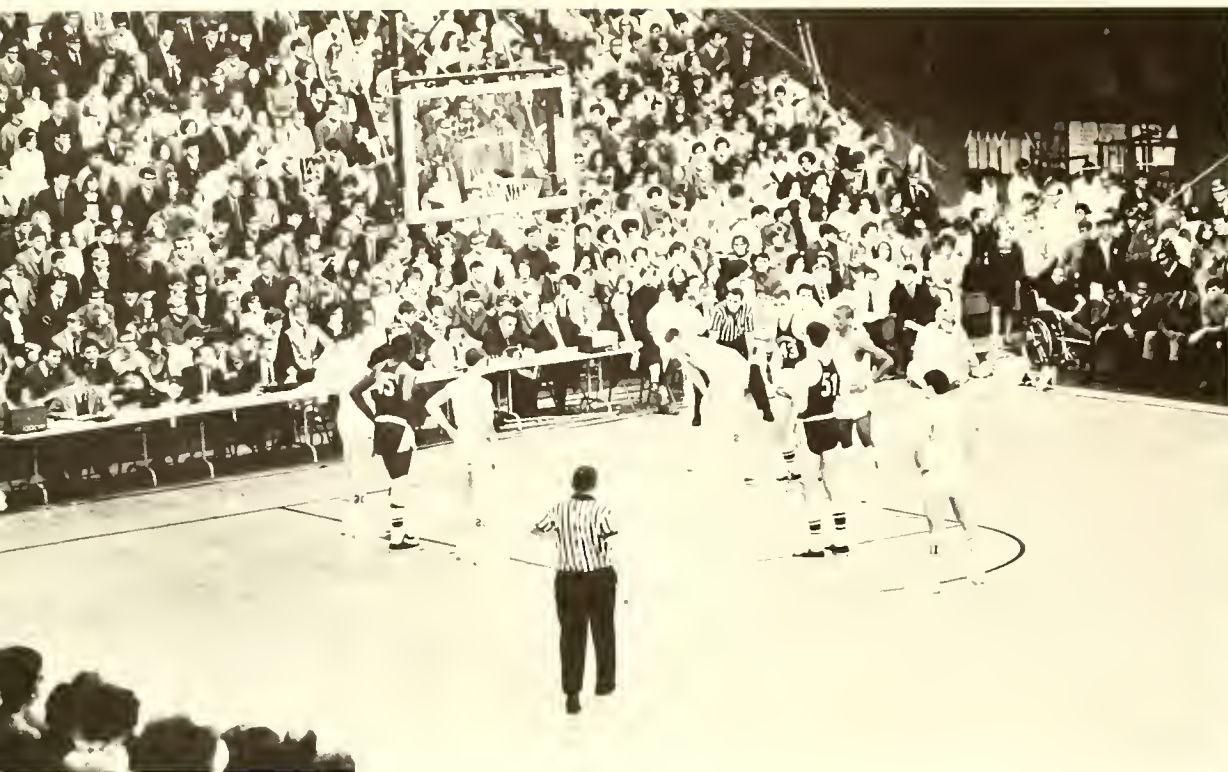

The six-foot guard brings the ball down court, fakes his defender and lays the ball in the basket — two more points for number 10. And the season goes on, with the fans tensely sitting with pencil and paper marking down each basket for the “Asheville Flash.” Anything less than 35 points is below par. What they came to see are the 52, 55 and 58 point games, the ones in which 30 foot jump shots become commonplace.

For the past three years the All-American astonished the people in Reid Gym with basketball magic that was unbelievable. Just barely six feet tall, he could touch over a foot above the basket with both hands. He would jump, fake a shot, fake a pass, and then shoot before coming down. He would dribble the ball behind his back with more ease than most players can dribble going forward. With the score ahead he liked to please the crowd in the closing minutes of the game — and that he did!

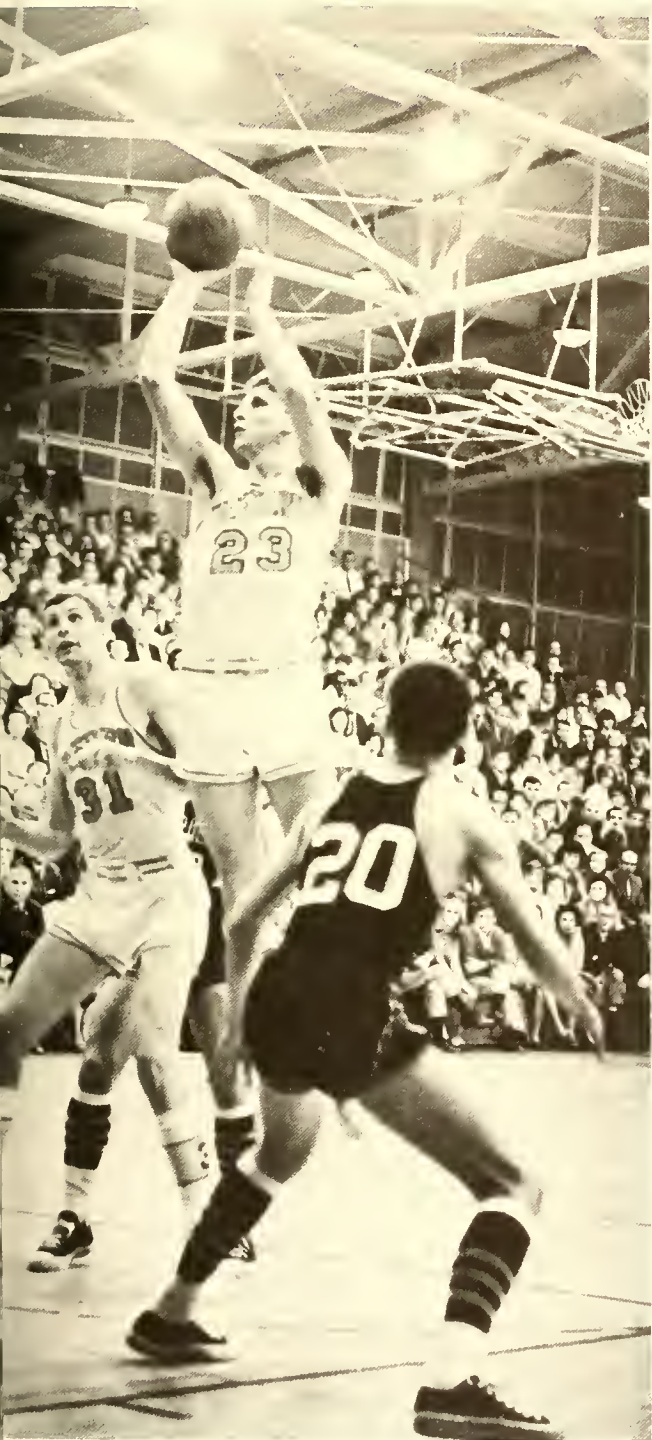

He has finished basketball at Western. Most people that have seen him play can't believe all the things he does with a basketball. An era is over. But nobody will ever forget Henry.

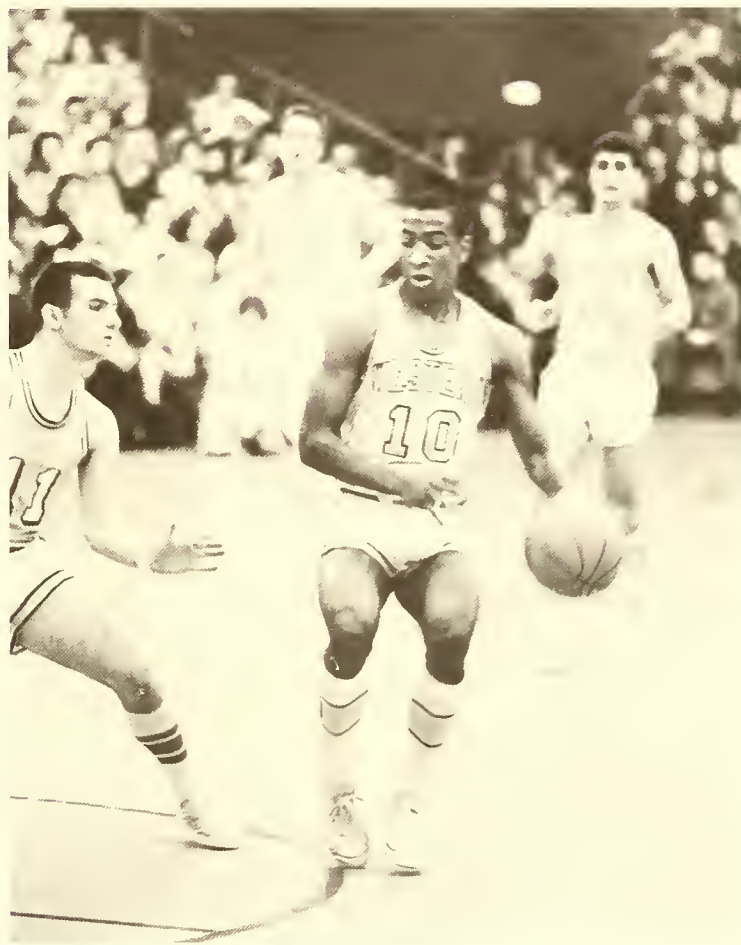

Logan Leads NAIA Scoring

Near End of Season

Sam Sapp shoots over the head of an Elon would be defender.

Logan squares off in an offensive battle with Catawba's high scoring Dwight Durante.

There are two traditions at Western's basketball games.
One is Gudger's red socks. The other is

The Faithful, Screaming Crowd.

A typical "Logan" night in Cullowhee. The packed student section gives all of its support to the fighting Cats.

In Memory . . .

Charles Scott Thompson

Scott was alive. There is no other word which comes closer to describing him. He was continually involved in life. During his college career he was a member of the College Center Board, of which he was vice-president last year, Young Republicans Club and International Relations Club. As a freshman he pledged Kappa Alpha Order, and has since been pledge master, rush chairman and vice-president. Scott served last year as sophomore senator and wrote the Student Bill of Rights.

This campus lost a valuable individual in the death of Charles Scott Thompson. Indeed, all who knew him personally, or just knew of him, felt the loss of an active student leader and friend.

So many good things begin with ENKA

American Enka Corporation is one of the largest producers of chemical fibers and yarns in the United States and is also a manufacturer of plastic covered wire and cable and dielectric materials.

The Company has production capacity for about 375-million pounds yearly of nylon, polyester and rayon. Basic markets for Enka products are apparel, household furnishings, automotive uses and tire cord, public utilities, business machines, and industrial, space and defense applications.

American Enka operates eight plants in four states and employs more than 9,000 persons. The Company has shown a steady growth pattern since its establishment almost 40 years ago. Annual sales are about $200 million.

Enka has recently completed the largest single expansion program in its history, with new and enlarged plants at Lowland, Tennessee and Siloam Springs, Arkansas.

We have frequent openings for chemists, physicists, chemical engineers, mechanical engineers, electrical engineers, industrial engineers and textile technologists and chemists. Occasional opportunities exist for those who hold degrees in business administration and liberal arts.

There are opportunities for ambitious persons who are willing to work hard to achieve their goals — they are treated as individuals and rewarded for good performance.

Interested? For more comprehensive information write: Employment Manager, American Enka Corporation, Enka, North Carolina.

COMPLIMENTS AND CONGRATULATIONS

CLASS OF 1968

Editor's Note

To name all of the people who played an important role in putting this book together would be impossible. There are a few, though, that I feel deserve a special thanks: those people whose pictures appear on pages 76, 77 & 78; Mr. Doug Reed, who was a great help in everything from copy to photographs; Mr. Jerry Friesner, who made possible the photographs on pages 8 & 9; Charlotte Wise, editor of the Western Carolinian; Quinn Constantz and Frank Arnette; and last, a woman whose patience and encouragement I could not have done without – my wife, Nancy.

Yearbooks are often called memory books. Their purpose is to document with pictures and words the events of a particular place during a particular time. Good yearbooks are not alike because no two years are alike. In trying to cover this year I have made several changes, left out and added parts, and reduced sections so that others could be enlarged. Every page was placed in this book for a purpose. I do not believe in changing things just to be different, nor do I believe in tradition only for traditions sake.

It took literally thousands of hours to complete this book. Only time will tell whether or not it is a success. For myself, I have succeeded as editor only when you can look through this book years from now and say, "That's the way it was."

Delta Sigma Phi fraternity set a world record of 270 miles when they bounced a basketball from Cullowhee to Winston-Salem in supporting the Catamounts in the Carolinas Conference Tournament. The effort to draw attention and school spirit to the tournament was a success as many students traveled to the games during Spring quarter break. High Point was defeated in the last minute of play in the first game, but the Cat's hopes for the tournament crown were lost as Catawba ended up four points ahead in the second and final game.

Victory at the District 26 playoffs was the last chance for a trip to Kansas City, but a night of cold shooting resulted in Western being toppled by underdog Pembroke College.

The Cats finished strong in regular season play and ended up second in the conference, with an overall record of 20-9.

High jumping Henry Logan finished the season as scoring champion of NAIA with an average of 36.6 points per game. Henry placed on just about every All-American team in the U. S. The third draft choice in the professional ranks, he signed a three year contract with the Oakland Oaks of the American Basketball Association.

Baseball

Inexperience was the delimia of Western's baseball team as their winning trend reversed in mid season. Often the first nine consisted of five or six freshmen, of which several did an outstanding job. Among these were Eddie Hope, who led the team with a .365 batting average, and Bill Wofford who led in RBI's.

Other leading hitters were sophomore catcher Steve Barkley and junior short stop Red Thompson. Roger Miller turned out to be the season's winning pitcher with a 7 - 2 record.

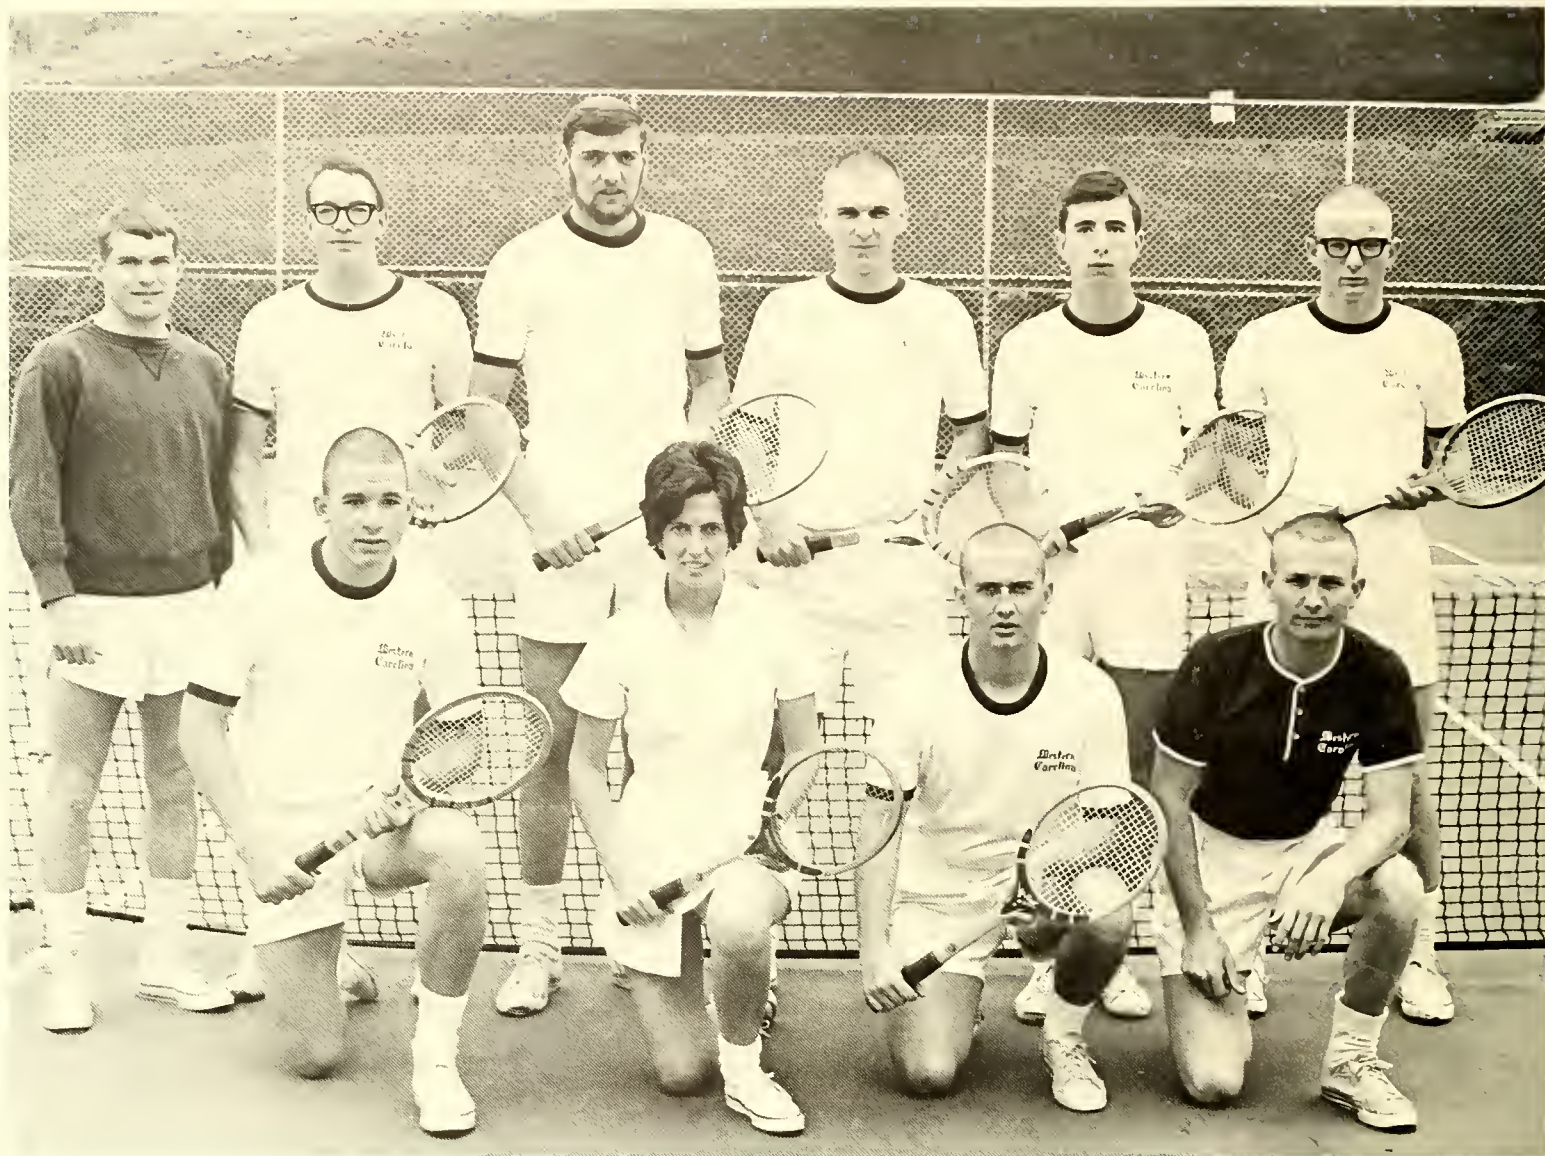

This is the second year Western has had no home field. The support of the fans was encouraging as many never failed to drive the seven miles to Sylva to back the Cats.

In spite of these limitations, the Cats ended with a 8 - 10 record in Conference play and an overall season of 12 - 12.

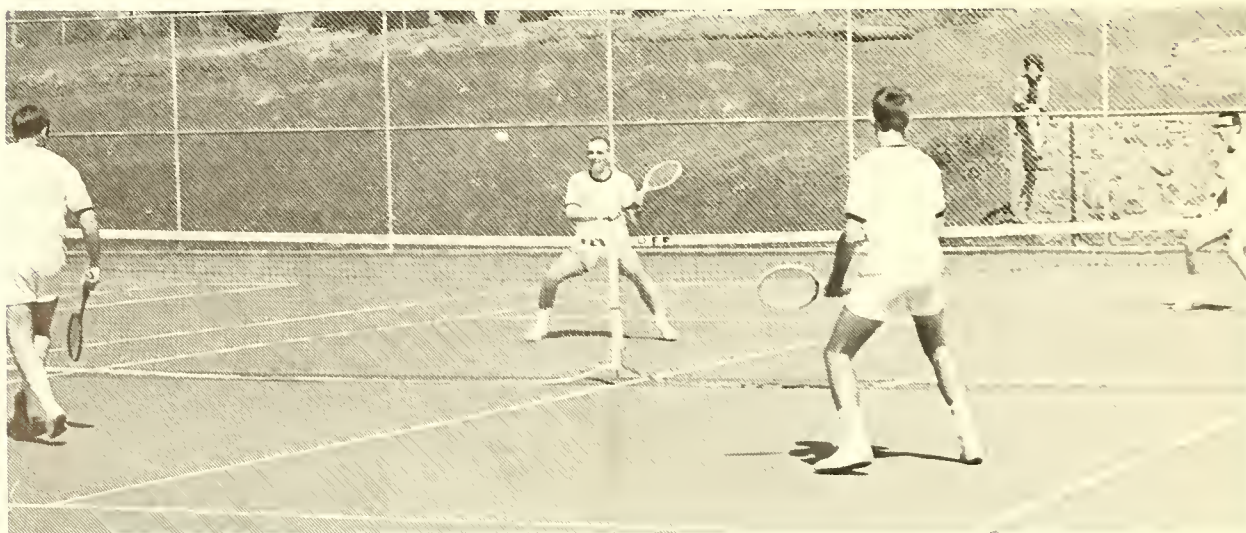

Coach Ron Blackburn

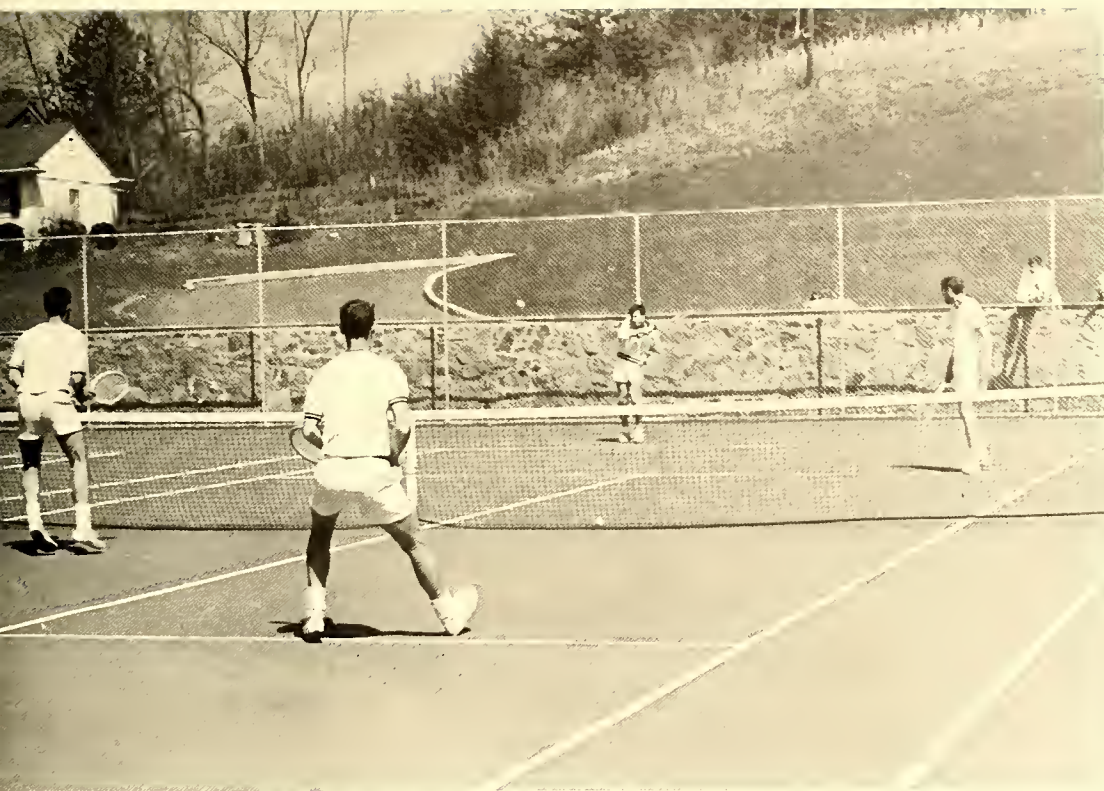

Tennis

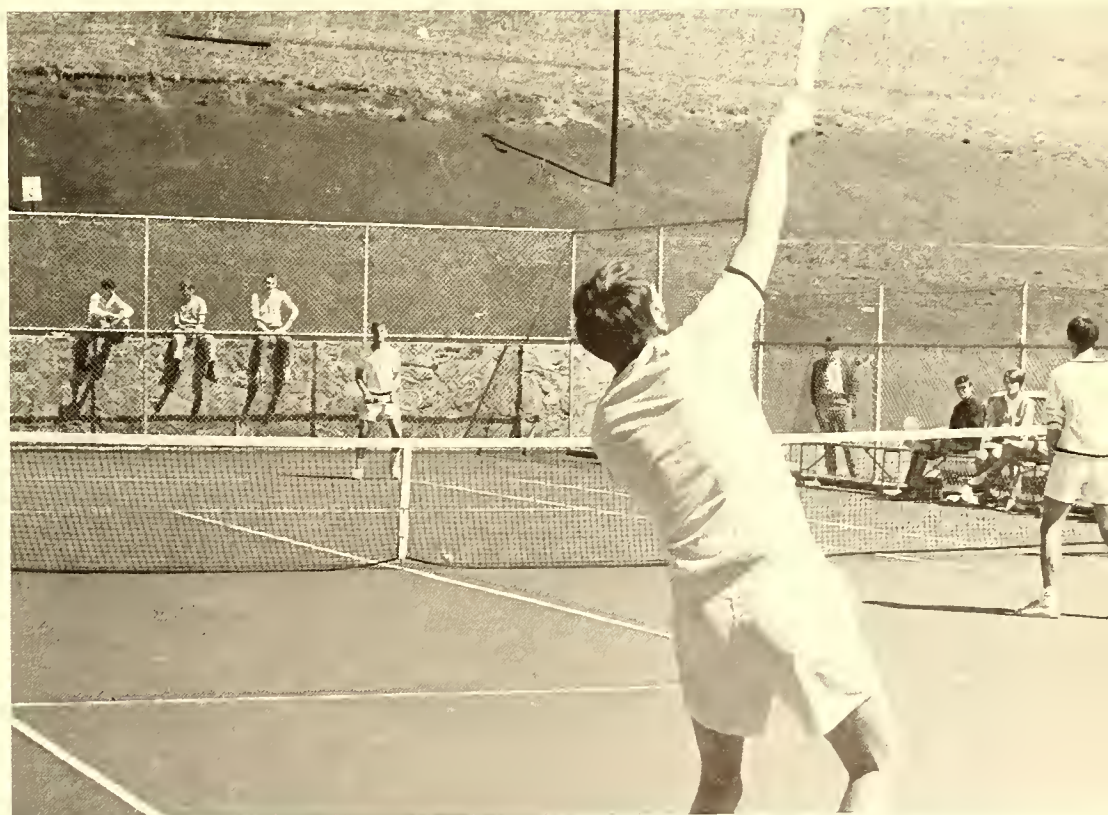

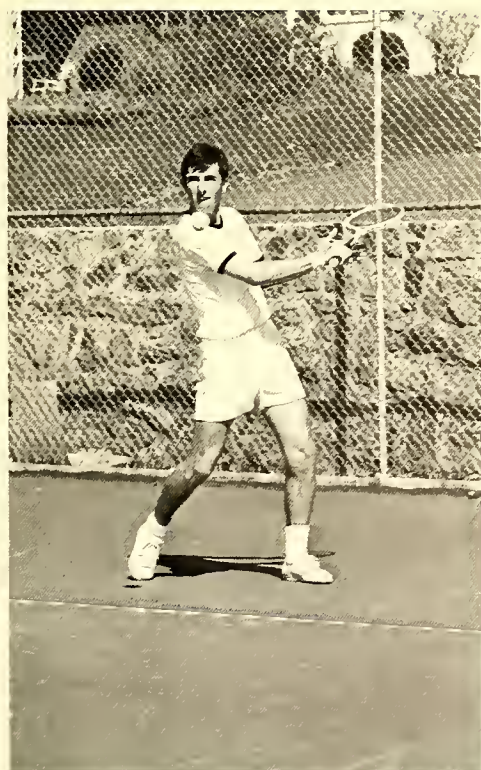

FIRST ROW: Craig Fogelman, Cheryl Smith, Larry Blackman, Steve Moore.

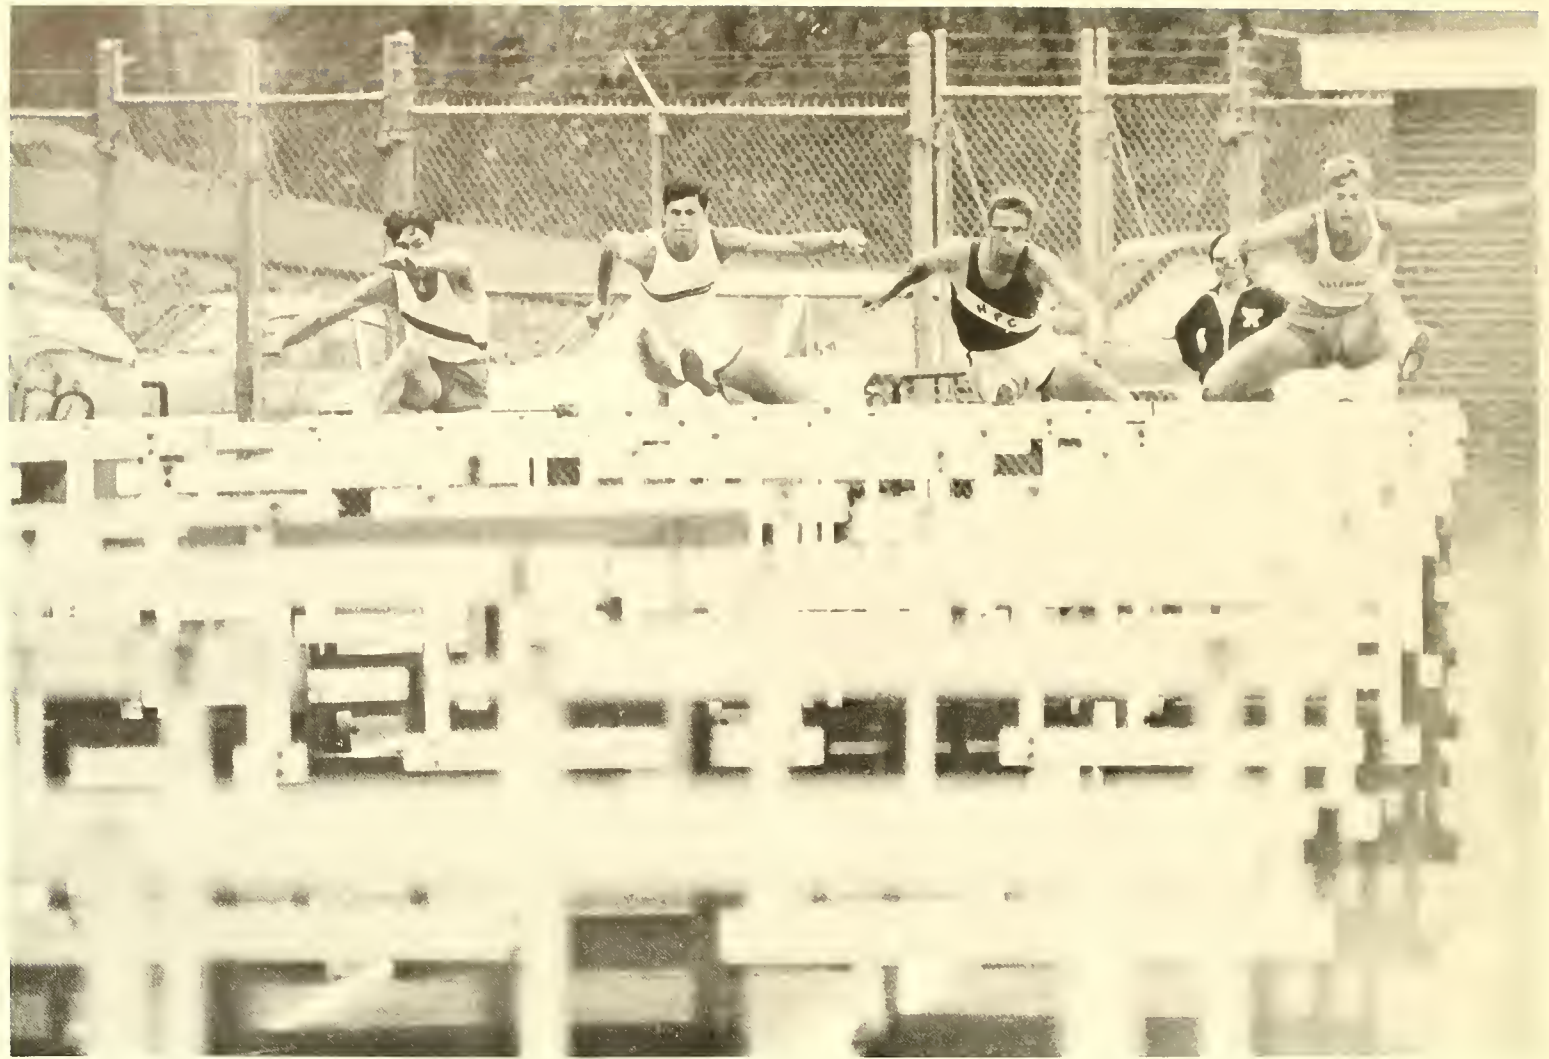

SECOND ROW: Norman Weaver-Coach, Bill Oehler, John Christiansen, Rick Palmer, Herb Bolick, John Morgan.

Herb Bolick, returning volley, teams with Yank Christensen to beat North Georgia.

Track

Western's first tract team put on an impressive show despite not having a home track or facilities with which to practice. Outstanding individual performances highlighted the season, but a lack of depth was evidenced by defeats in spite of placing first in many events. In the Mars Hill-Campbell tri-meet, Western placed third even though the Cats captured seven first places out of 16 events. Next year looks promising as a track will be completed in Cullowhee and all but one boy will be returning. In the Carolinas Conference meet Western placed fifth out of 9 teams.

Outstanding participants were Hayes Powell in the triple jump and relays and Mike Metcalf in the discus.

NAIA Conference Champion Mike Metcalf won on this throw at Brevard.

President Reid bids farewell.

The final deadline for the yearbook material has usually been by the end of Winter quarter, which has resulted in books that covered only two-thirds of the school year. In trying to decide how to present a complete book I was faced with two choices: either have a summer or fall delivery, or have a supplement. This supplement was my decision.

Many things happened during Spring quarter that are not covered here because of the lack of space. But I do hope that this small section, which fits in the back of the yearbook, does help to make this the first complete CATA-MOUNT.

Bill Gray, Editor
